

ALLIES UNABLE TO SPRING THE TRAP

M'ADOO TO PASS ON RAISE WAGE FOR THE SHOPMEN WITHIN THE NEXT FEW DAYS

FINAL DECISION WILL BE AN-NOUNCED ON JULY 25, HE STATES IN ADDRESS.

IS DOING HIS BEST

APPEALS TO THE PATRIOTISM OF RAILROAD EMPLOYEES TO STAND BEHIND THE GOVERN- MENT.

The final decision of Director General McAdoo in regard to a further raise in the wages of machinists and shopmen will be announced on July 25, according to a statement he made in an address recently delivered at Hilliard, Washington.

A copy of the speech has been received at the L. & N. shops here, and is as follows:

To All Concerned:

The following address was made by the Director General of Railroads to railroad shop workers at Hilliard, State of Washington, July 22nd.

"Ladies and Gentlemen, Fellow Railroad Workers: I wish I could make a speech to you, but I overstrained my voice in three Liberty Loan campaigns and the doctors have forbidden me to make any speeches for a short time; but I do want to tell you that I am glad to see you and be associated with you in doing a very great work for our country. To us railroad men has been assigned one of the biggest parts in this war. It depends upon us whether or not the Kaiser will be licked ten times as quickly as he otherwise will be. I know we are going to lick him ten times as quickly because the railroad men of the United States are going to do their duty to Uncle Sam. You are all Uncle Sam's servants now, no private interests control the railroads any more. Uncle Sam is in command; he has his hand on the throttle; he is running these railroads; and you are going to help him make a success of it. I want to give you all just as fair treatment as I know how, but we are all servants of the American people, you and I alike, and it depends upon the way in which we discharge our responsibilities whether or not the American people are going to treat us right. The strength of our position must always rest upon public opinion; what I do for you from time to time must be done with reference to what is just, not alone to you but to the public which has got to pay the bill. I want to give you a square deal and the public wants to give you a square deal, but the public wants you to give it a square deal as well. When your wages are raised, how do we get the money to pay it? We have to put up the rates on all the American people and if we do not treat them fairly they will refuse to sustain me in trying to help you. I want you to help me do the square thing for the American people while I am trying to do the square thing for you. That is fair all around, isn't it? I know that the machinists and the shopmen think they were not treated fairly in the original wage commission's report. There are peculiar conditions affecting the machinists and the shopmen of the country. Because I recognize that I appointed a new commission, the Board of Railroad Wages and Working Conditions. They have made a report to me. I am working on that report, and shall render a decision on the twenty-fifth of this month. When that decision is made I want you to know that I have conscientiously done the best I could for you, having just regard to your interest and the interests of the public. I want you all to accept that decision like true patriots putting country above self or selfish interests, like our brave soldiers are doing in France. We owe that much to our splendid sons who are shedding their blood to make our jobs and our homes safe and to have human liberty throughout the world. If we all do our duty as well as our boys are doing theirs in France, we shall soon plant the Kaiser face downward and keep him there. Let every railroad man hold on to his job and back Uncle Sam to the limit."

Big Transport Is Sunk off Ireland

(International News Service)
London, July 24.—After an all night sea battle between a squadron of German submarines and the Justicia, one of the biggest liners afloat, the Justicia was sunk on Saturday morning off the north coast of Ireland, it was learned this afternoon. One of the attacking U-boats was sunk by shell fire from the vessel. There was loss of life on the Justicia, the casualties being estimated at from 9 to 11 dead.

The first attack was made on Friday, but it was not until today that knowledge of the sinking of the vessel was made public.

The Justicia, formerly the Holland-American liner Staetendam, was chartered by the American government thirteen months ago and was being used as a transport. She was on her way to an American port when sunk.

Four hundred and three survivors were landed at an Irish port.

Seven depth-bombs were fired in an effort to destroy the attacking U-boats.

COMMERCE BOARD NAMES GOOD ROADS COMMITTEE

The directors of the Albany Board of Commerce, at a meeting held last night, on the recommendation of the Booster trip committee, voted to name a committee on good roads, which will take the initiative in securing the improvement of the trade highways leading to the city. Road building will in a way be a substitute for the annual booster trip, which was called off on account of the war.

The good roads committee is composed of the following: A. G. Patterson, E. F. Tidwell, G. Z. Buchheit, I. J. Kuhn, Lamar Penney, J. B. Cassells, T. L. Beauchamp, J. E. Wilder, E. H. Allison, J. H. Crow.

War Organization.

The board of directors also considered the plan for perfecting a permanent war organization, to have charge of the Red Cross drives, the Liberty Loan campaigns and other war activities during the period of the world struggle. While no major, who is to be in supreme command, was named, some progress was reported and two captains selected. These are John Patterson, for the west side, and L. H. Bullard for the central section of the city. Prominent citizens of East and South Albany were called in and conferred with regarding the captains for these two wards, but final decision was postponed.

Under the plan there will be a lieutenant for every street, with privates under him for each block.

HUNS ARE RETREATING FIGHTING FIERCELY AS THEY RETIRE SLOWLY

ANOTHER ADVANCE MADE BY THE AMERICANS, BUT ENEMY HAD GONE

GERMANS DELIVER COUNTER ATTACK

The Gap Between Rheims and Soissons Narrowed to 25 Miles

An unsuccessful effort has been made by the Germans to widen the base of their salient between the Aisne and Marne rivers by striking against the allied positions in the Vigny sector, five miles west by south of Rheims. All of the German attacks in that region broke down under the sturdy resistance of the French, and the allied line was maintained intact.

Heavy artillery duels developed along the Aisne-Marne-Champagne front over night. Unofficial advices from the front indicated that the allies were continuing sharp local thrusts over a wide area, and that they were steadily gaining ground despite the resistance of the German rear guard.

This was the seventh day of the Franco-American offensive and during that time, according to authoritative estimates, the Germans have suffered losses of 180,000, not counting the 25,000 men lost in prisoners. They have been beaten back at every point and now the neck of the salient between Rheims and Soissons is only about 25 miles wide, a dangerously narrow bottled neck for a big army to retreat through.

(International News Service.)

With the American Army at the Marne, July 24.—Another German retirement took place east of Chateau Thierry on the Marne front during the night. The enemy abandoned strong points which the Americans had been attacking during Tuesday.

The American and French troops this morning went forward expecting heavy attacks, but found the Germans had vanished. The allies continued to push on in an effort to get in contact with the retreating Germans. The Franco-American advance encountered no resistance and air observers went up to try and locate the German rear guard forces.

(International News Service.)

With the American Army at the Aisne, July 24.—For 24 hours the Germans have been using their long range guns in shelling the Americans northeast of Chateau Thierry. This indicates that all of the lighter pieces have been withdrawn in anticipation of a further retreat by the infantry.

(International News Service.)

Berne, July 24.—Announcement in the Reichsrath that Emperor Charles had accepted the resignation of Premier Von Seydeler and his cabinet called forth hisses when Von Seydeler's name was mentioned, said a dispatch today.

(International News Service.)

Washington, July 24.—American troops continue to press the retiring enemy south of the Ourcq, says Gen. Pershing's communique under date of July 23, made public today. Confirmation of press dispatches telling of the capture of Jaulgonne also is contained in the communique.

(International News Service.)

London, July 24.—Successful raids were carried out by the British in the Albert-Bucquoy sector, the war office stated today. The German artillery was active around Loire on the Flanders front.

(International News Service.)

With the American Army on the Marne, July 23.—Americans were in action all day northeast of Chateau Thierry against German shock units that were under orders to "fight to the death." After a hard struggle, during which the Americans employed the tactics of the old-time Indian fighting on the western plains, German strong positions defended by machine guns were penetrated. Fighting with rifles and bayonets, the Americans overcame all resistance, overcoming the German field fortifications. A few hundred German prisoners were taken.

Rain barred aerial observation today, but German prisoners told their captors that the Teutons were constructing new fortifications behind their positions all along the Aisne-Marne-Rheims front.

(International News Service.)

Paris, July 24.—Hard fighting developed southwest of Rheims last night when the Germans began a dayvasting fire Vigny, but the assault broke down before the allied resistance, the war office announced today.

All of the French positions were maintained intact. Violent artillery activity developed between the Aisne and the Marne and Rheims, especially in Courlon woods and Bois-Di-Roi (between Rheims and the Marne.)

(International News Service.)

With the American Army at the Aisne, July 23.—(9 p. m.)—American artillery south of Soissons laid down a dayvasting fire this morning against heavy masses of German infantry. The shelling was followed by an attack which at last reports was progressing favorably despite violent German cannon and machine gun fire.

ROY KELLEY, ALBANY SAILOR, IS SAVED WHEN SAN DIEGO IS LOST

FEDERAL CONTROL OF WIRE SYSTEMS

The official proclamation of President Wilson taking over control of the wire systems by the federal government, will bring relief to the public. For some time past, the service given by the Morse lines, notably the Western Union, has been exceptionally unreliable and unsatisfactory. This was no doubt due to the obstinate stand which the company took against the recognition of the Telegrapher's Union, and its determination to pursue its own course regardless of the interests of the public or of the national crisis.

It is extremely doubtful if the management of the wire lines will ever be restored to the original owners. Like the railroads, the telegraph companies, especially, effect the national life too intimately for their control to be vested in the hands of men who have only profit-making in view, and whose whims and vagaries take precedence over the welfare of their clients. Service must in future be the aim of all public utilities, and to get service there must be a higher mark to shoot at than merely declaring dividends.

The biggest issue just now in connection with the taking over of the wire lines, is the certainty that there will be no strikes called. These will not be tolerated, and differences between owners and employees will be side-tracked as a minor issue during the war period.

OUR BOYS OVER THERE

A French officer says, in writing from the front to a French newspaper:

"At the sight of these men, magnificent in their youth, physical force, good temper and dash, the Germans fled 'with every leg' or surrendered without awaiting the order to throw away their arms and take off their suspenders, which is the first thing a prisoner is told to do in order that he may be compelled to keep his hands employed and out of mischief. "The Germans hurried toward our lines gripping their trousers, haggard and mad with terror.

"Would that every mother in France who has lost a son in the war could have seen that epic sight. They would have seen themselves revenged, and it would have been some consolation to them in their sorrow."

None of the "patriotic" candidates have as yet suggested the advisability of closing up headquarters and contributing the campaign expense fund to the Red Cross, or of investing it in War Savings Stamps.

YANK CAPTURES COUSIN IN RECENT RAID ON HUN TRENCHES

(International News Service.)
Hackensack, N. J., July 24.—Details of how two cousins, one a corporal in the American army and the other a soldier of the Kaiser, met in France after a raid were told here recently.

The American is Corporal William Munz, Jr., of Hackensack, a member of the 165th Infantry, the old "Fighting 69th." The German boy is Gustave Winkelmann, of Bremen, a prisoner in an American camp. Letters from Corporal Munz say he was in a raid against the German trenches recently and came back with a batch of prisoners. The captives were being identified when Winkelmann mentioned that he had relatives in the United States. Munz asked their names and found that the boy was his cousin.

WOMEN ON DRAFT BOARDS DO NOT PITY WAR BRIDES

(International News Service.)
Tacoma, Wash., July 24.—War brides can't "pull the wool" over the eyes of the women members of Tacoma draft boards. The women of the boards have announced they are not inclined to listen to the pleas of war brides for their newly-wed husbands. One woman on a board said: "This is my answer to these war brides: You knew your government had called the men from twenty-one to thirty-one into the service. You took your chance when you married a man you knew would have to go. Now play the game."

Judgment for Gray In Su mot $7,500

AMOUNT PREVIOUSLY AWARDED CUT IN HALF.

John Gray, a negro, has been awarded damages in the sum of $7,500 against the Louisville & Nashville railroad by a jury in the circuit court. This was half the amount awarded by two previous juries, in both instances the case being reversed by the Alabama supreme court.

Gray was employed at the local round house, and was severely injured when another mogul backed into the one on which he was at work. The accident occurred in 1912 and the man died in 1916.

E. C. Nix appeared as special counsel for the railroad in the suit, while the complainant was represented by Wert & Lynne.

Foster H. Pointer has purchased the Bank Street Utotem Store from S. D. Johnson and in future Harry Pointer will conduct it. He has made many advantageous changes since taking charge and with his large number of friends and acquaintances, he will no doubt have fine success.

To The Consumers Of The Water Co.

We have no desire to precipitate a controversy between the Water Company and its consumers. The greatest pleasure the officials of this Company have is the thought of the friendly relations existing between it and the people it serves. Since we took charge of the plant there has never been a law-suit brought against the company; this is a testimonial that we are very proud of, and we do not want the record broken.

We have called the attention of our consumers to the necessity for saving coal. Mayor Payne says that this saving is for the benefit of the Water Company. Of course, if we save coal the Water Company does not have to pay out the money. It must be borne in mind, however, that the Water Company has to pay largely increased prices for every commodity which enters into its business, and so far as I am advised, the Water Company and other public utilities are the only institutions in the United States furnishing the same service without advance in price. If the present waste continues in Decatur, and the present high prices of coal and other commodities, which enter into our operations, continue, the Water Company will be compelled to go before the people asking for an increase in rates. We do not want to do this. Our company desires to have the reputation of rendering its service faithfully and continuously in good times as well as bad, and to carry out its contract to the last letter.

In this connection, it might be well to speak about fire insurance. The reports of the Southeastern Underwriters Association indicate that a penalty is placed upon the cities of Decatur and Albany on account of water waste. As far back as 1916 the Underwriters' Report contains the following:

"Consumption.—The average daily consumption for all purposes is 1,670,000 gallons; a per capita consumption of 111 gallons, based on a population of 15,000 served in New Decatur and Decatur. Only the large consumers are metered, and it will be observed that the consumption is excessive, due, no doubt, to waste, which reduces the amount of water available for fire protection."

Please observe that the average daily consumption was at this time 1,670,000 gallons, and was considered excessive. The Water Company frequently pumps twice that amount of water daily.

The same report also contains the following:

"Present rate of domestic consumption is excessive and should be reduced as the waste from unmetered services reduces the amount of water available for fire protection, and, therefore, impairs the efficiency of the protection. It is strongly urged that all consumers be placed on and served on a meter basis."

That this condition still prevails is shown in an extract from a letter from the Chief Engineer of the Southeastern Underwriters Association of April 3, 1918, which is as follows:

"We are, of course, very much pleased to note that you are installing meters in Albany in an effort to reduce the heavy consumption which, of course, would leave a larger supply of water for fire protective purposes. In this connection, we beg to advise that when the committee from the City of Albany visited this office on the 13th ultimo, we took occasion to call their attention to this matter, and advised them that if the heavy domestic consumption, or waste of water, was reduced, this would accordingly cause an improvement in the grading of the City, due to the fact that it would leave a larger supply of water for fire protection."

In Mayor Payne's article he says that 2,000,000 gallons of water saved amounts to $480.00.

Is there any reason why the Water Company should be assessed a daily tax of $480.00 by people who waste water?

Is there any reason why people should not be fair with the Water Company?

Fairness is all we ask.

GET RID OF THAT EARLY PATCH OF CORN NOW

Auburn, Ala., July 23 (Special).—"Corn weevils are now working in that early feed or roasting-ear patch of corn," says Dr. Frank L. Thomas of the Alabama Extension Service. Last year Alabama produced 90,000,000 bushels of corn, and Dr. Thomas estimates that 8 per cent of this was destroyed by weevils, which would amount to 7,200,000 bushels. It does not take much figuring to see how much money is being lost through the damage done by this pest. Dr. Thomas gives the following information as to how to prevent some of the damage caused by this weevil:

"Six weeks after the roasting-ear stage the weevils will begin to spread to the main crop if no steps are taken to prevent their increase. Therefore, gather all corn left on these early patches. In other words, spring the 'trap' which has been 'baited' with early corn, and either feed it out or fumigate it without delay. If fumigated, use carbon disulphid at the rate of 7½ to 10 pounds for every 100 bushels when in bulk, or 1 pound to 100 cubic feet of space if in a tight room.

"Otherwise, your early patch will be a breeding place for corn weevils and a source of infestation to the remainder of the corn crop."

"Clean out the corn cribs and bins thoroughly and never mix the late maturing corn with the early variety when harvested.

"Select your seed in the field and do not forget to look for a long tight-fitting shuck in addition to the other desirable characteristics necessary for good seed ears."

RED SPIDER IN MORGAN.

(Ernest Carnes, County Agent)

Farmers of Morgan County have recently been of the opinion that their cotton was being damaged by "red-rust" but upon investigation it is found that most of this damage is being done by the presence of a small insect called red-spider, which may be found by examining closely on the under side of the leaf. This small insect resembles a plant louse and is red in appearance, just large enough to be detected by the naked eye.

The red spider is very active in dry weather with cool nights similar to what we have recently been having. It seems to pass the winter on certain flowers found in the yard such as violets and sometimes found on polk berry stalks, spreading from these plants in the spring. It is classed with the sucking insect group hence cannot be poisoned but may be destroyed by sprays such as tobacco preparations, kerosene emulsion which can be made at home. Violets should be sprayed in the early spring and when the appearance of red spider is found on the cotton, this should be sprayed thoroughly. It usually appears on a few stalks only as it begins to spread.

"NAN OF MUSIC MOUNTAIN," DELITE AND STAR FRIDAY

It is seldom indeed that a motion picture cast actually achieves the honor of being an "all-star," but such is the cast which was chosen to support Wallace Reid in his newest Paramount photoplay, "Nan of Music Mountain," which will appear on the screen of the Delite and Star Theatre on Friday.

Theodore Roberts, Raymond Hutton, Ann Little, James Cruze, Charles Ogle, Guy Oliver, Horace B. Carpenter, Henry Woodward and Ernest Joy are among the well-known players appearing in this production, which was directed by George H. Melford and the scenario of which was arranged by Beulah Marie Dix from Frank Spearman's story which appeared recently in "Everybody's Magazine" in serial form.

THOUGHT

The Evening Star—
The evening star a child espied,
The one star in the sky.
"Is that God's service flag?" he cried,
And waited for reply.
The mother paused a moment
Ere she told the little one:
"Yes, that is why the star is there;
He gave His Only Son."

MOURNING

Shall I wear mourning for my soldier dead,
I—a believer? Give me red,
Or give me royal purple for the king
At whose high court my love is visiting.
Dress me in green for growth, for life made new;
For skies his dear feet march, dress me in blue;
In white for his white soul—robe me in gold
For all the pride that his new rank shall hold,
In earth's dim gardens blooms no hue so bright
To dress me for my love who walks in light!
—Gertrude Knevels.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful."

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well. If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133

25,000 Women Wanted to Enroll in the United States Student Nurse Reserve

The government is calling for 25,000 young women to join the United States Student Nurse Reserve and hold themselves in readiness to train for service as nurses.

The war is creating an unprecedented demand for trained nurses. Only those who have taken the full training course are eligible for service with our forces overseas. These nurses are being drawn largely from our hospitals at home. Their places must be filled by student nurses enrolled for the full training course of from two to three years. Every young woman who enrolls in the United States Student Nurse Reserve is releasing a nurse for service at the front and swelling the home army which we must rely on to act as our second line of hospital defense. Upon the health of the American people will depend the spirit of their fighting forces.

Age—The call is for women between the ages of nineteen and thirty-five.

Qualifications—Intelligent, responsible women of good education and sound health are wanted—the pick of the country. A college education is a valuable asset, and many hospitals will give credit for it. Credit will also be given for a special scientific equipment or for preliminary training in nursing, such as that given in special courses now being conducted by various colleges and schools. Some schools, on the other hand, do not even require a full high-school education.

Enrollment—Women will be given an opportunity to enroll in the United States Student Nurse Reserve in any one of three ways.

(1) As engaging to hold themselves in readiness until April 1, 1919, to accept assignments to nurses' training schools. These women will be sent to the schools as fast as vacancies occur. Those of superior qualifications will be given preference, and it is, of course, possible that not everyone who enrolls will be accepted.

(2) As desiring to become candidates for the Army Nursing School recently established by authority of the War Department, with branch school in selected military hospitals.

(3) As engaging to hold themselves in readiness until April 1, 1919, to accept assignments to either a civilian training school or the Army Nursing School. Those who so enroll will be called where the first need arises. The government hopes that a majority of those who enroll will thus put down their names for both.

The Nurses' Training Schools—There are 1,579 nurses' training schools in this country. Their need is as great and imperative as that of the Army School of Nursing.

Those who enroll for these schools will be assigned as vacancies occur.

The enrollment card will indicate two classes of registrants—Preferred and Deferred. The Preferred class will be those who are ready to accept assignment to whatever hospital the government directs them, although they may state what training school they prefer to be sent to. Those who register in the Preferred class will be assigned first, and all possible consideration will be given to their preference as stated. The Deferred class is composed of those who limit their pledge of service—that is, who will not engage to go except to certain hospitals. This class is intended largely for those who, for family reasons, can not accept training at a distance from their homes. Those who register in the Deferred class will be assigned, only after the Preferred class is exhausted.

The government relies on the patriotism of those who enroll to fill out Preferred cards if they possibly can, thus volunteering to go where they are most needed.

Nobody will be assigned to any schools whose conditions of training are not approved by the State Board of Nurse Examiners.

Terms of training—The term of training varies from two to three years, according to the requirements of the particular school to which the student nurse may be sent. No course takes less than two years nor more than three.

What the training course prepares for—At present every woman who completes satisfactorily her training in any accredited school is eligible for service as an army nurse at the front and stands a chance of being assigned to duty abroad. At the same time she will be qualified to earn her living in one of the noblest professions open to women. It should be remembered, furthermore, that her usefulness will begin not when she graduates from the training school but as soon as she enters it. Practical nursing work is a part of the work of every training school, and the student nurse is not only learning to serve but serving her country from the outset.

Finances—The student nurse gets her board, lodging, and tuition free at practically every training school, and in most cases receives a small remuneration to cover the cost of books and uniforms. After graduation she has an earning capacity of from $100 to $300 a month. Private-duty nurses now receive an average of from $100 to $120 a month together with board while on duty; institution nurses from $50 to $250 a month together with board, lodging, and laundry; and public-health nurses from $100 to $250 a month without maintenance. There is no danger of the earning capacity of nurses being lowered after the war ends on account of the great number who will then be qualified for the profession; the country will need all the nurses that can be trained, not only during the war but after it, especially for reconstruction work. Even if the war ends within three years, every student nurse will be able to complete her training and will be needed.

An honorable service—Ever since the days of Florence Nightingale the nursing profession has been one of especial honor. It was never so honorable as it is today. The army needs every nurse it can get to "keep up with the draft." The United States Student Nurse Reserve is the equivalent for women of the great National Army training camps for soldiers. The government will rely upon the student nurses to fight disease at home, to care for those injured and disabled in our hazardous war industries, and to make themselves ready to serve when the time comes as fully trained nurses, either abroad or at home. Let us show that we know how to answer the government's call to the women of the country.

NEW PRIZE FOR PIG CLUB BOYS

Auburn, Ala., July 24 (Special).—Alabama boys have never shown greater interest in pig club work than they are now showing, according to J. C. Ford, assistant boys' club agent of the Alabama extension service. He says the boys are not only growing more hogs, but are growing better ones and giving them better attention.

Various prizes are being competed for, and a new one recently donated is $50 in cash by the National Duroc Jersey Record Association. This prize is offered by the association with the idea of encouraging the pig club members who are raising Durocs.

The contest is to be state-wide, with the county as the unit. The $50 will be divided into three premiums of $25, $15 and $10, which are to be awarded to the leading counties on the basis of organized community work as follows:

1. Number of organized community pig clubs in the county adopting Duroc Jersey breed, 30 points;

2. Number of members in organized pig clubs adopting Durocs, who use registered animals, and turn in complete records in the fall, 30 points;

3. Average number of meetings held by above clubs and percentage of membership attending as indicated by monthly reports, 20 points;

4. Quality of work done as indicated by records, 20 points.

It will be left to the county agent of each winning county to decide the method of expending his county's winnings. He may divide it among each club of the county, or any other way that he may see fit.

While these prizes are not large ones, yet when added to all the other prizes offered, they amount to quite a bit, and are encouraging to the boys.

ROOKIES WITH FLAT FEET GET SPECIAL TREATMENT

(International News Service) Ayer, Mass., July 22.—All "rookies" with flat feet at Camp Devens have been brought together for orthopedic treatment. There are two full companies of them. The two companies have been made a part of the First Development Battalion in which it is proposed to train for service men who have minor physical defects.

BASEBALL BAT SHORT-AGE IN FRANCE

There is a baseball bat shortage in France and our boys "over there" have nobody to blame but themselves. The trouble is that they have developed such Ty Cobb wallops that the bats are splintered faster than they can be shipped from America. The Y. M. C. A. has been sending them over by the thousands but the demand is far greater than the supply.

A bat shortage is a serious thing, for the fighting man, back from the trenches for a breathing spell, finds nothing as restful as a good, fast game of ball.

To solve the problem, the Y. M. C. A. has erected a factory in France and is turning out a bat which, while not as good as the "made in America" brand, is helping to fill the bill. The difficulty has been to get the proper kind of wood but the head of the factory is experimenting with various varieties and expects to find the right thing.
